2026 Bordeaux Wines Awards : The winners have been announced !

The 70th edition of the Bordeaux Wine Awards took place this Saturday at the Palais des Congrès in Bordeaux, marking a milestone anniversary for this emblematic event. The official list of award-winning wines has now been released.

This year, 1849 wines from across all appellations of the Nouvelle-Aquitaine region were entered into the competition. Following a rigorous morning of tastings, 573 medals were awarded, representing 30.99% of the samples presented:

- 281 Gold medals
- 231 Silver medals
- 61 Bronze medals

Nearly 400 tasters — wine professionals (such as winemakers, oenologists, wine merchants, sommeliers) and informed enthusiasts — took part in the evaluation. Their expertise and commitment ensure a demanding selection process and results that are widely recognized for their credibility.

> A valuable recognition for wine producers

The Concours de Bordeaux is now regarded as a key benchmark in the wine industry. Celebrating its 70th anniversary this year, it continues to highlight the diversity and excellence of wines from the region.

Winning a medal at the Concours de Bordeaux provides a real commercial advantage, both in France and internationally. For buyers and consumers alike, the medal serves as a clear indicator of quality and a mark of trust.

Organized by the Chamber of Agriculture of Gironde, the competition stands out for the rigor of its organization and the reliability of its results.
